

Discrimination

Have you been treated unfairly because of your age, race, gender, sexuality, disability or other personal characteristic?

Discrimination is when you are treated less favourably than other people because of certain personal characteristics.

Sexual harassment is another form of discrimination.

There are laws against discrimination.

To find out more about discrimination laws and how to make a complaint, head to:

- Victoria Legal Aid – Discrimination
- Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission
- Australian Human Rights Commission

Before you make a complaint, get legal advice by contacting Youthlaw or Victoria Legal Aid.
